Raising the Bar for East Bay Luxury

In the span of a handful of busy years, Ann Newton Cane has taken the high-end real estate market in the East Bay by storm—a graceful and welcome one, that is. Since starting her real estate career in 2019, she has recorded more than $327 million in sales, with another $30 million in contract and $23 million currently on the market. The top-producing agent in the East Bay for Golden Gate Sotheby's International Realty, Ann is a natural thanks to her robust and accomplished prior career in telecommunications, her deep roots and involvement in her community, and a genuine passion for real estate and service.

With a deep understanding of market trends, impeccable negotiation skills, and a personalized approach to each transaction, Ann is consistently raising the bar for real estate service in the East Bay's luxury market.

Teton Jewel

Old Horseshoe Road, Driggs, Idaho

$35,000,000
sothebysrealty.com/id/T37FFP

Teton Jewel is a 2,558-acre ranch located in Teton County, Idaho. As the name aptly captures, this property is truly a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity. The ranch has all three of the primary value-determining attributes for a recreational ranch of live water, contiguity with National Forest, and extraordinary elevated views of the Teton Range. Teton Jewel is located at the western termination of public land ownership in the Horseshoe Canyon area of the Teton Valley. The property is also traversed by Horseshoe Creek, with over one mile of frontage on this creek that ranges in character from ideal willow habitat for area wildlife to an idyllic scenic amenity.
