Comprehensive Reporting For Your Customized Campaign

After the launch, we give you complete and comprehensive reporting for the duration of your campaign. We can also give 30 day reports for you to evaluate the effectiveness of your targeting and to adjust it.

- We project the number of impressions (number of times the ad appears on each site) during your campaign.
- The number of impressions are broken down by number and site for the duration of the campaign.
- The delivery by site is broken down into delivered impressions, clicks, and click-through rate. This allows you to see on what sites your ads are performing well and where there needs to be improvement. With this information we are able to adjust the campaign for maximum effectiveness.

Going Once, Going Twice

More wealthy homeowners are turning to the auction market, but the results don't always live up to their lofty expectations

By Kenneth Claus and E.R. Soutter

Randy and Robin Landman had been trying to sell their Manhattan penthouse for over a year when they turned to the auction market this summer. First listed for $12.2 million, their triple in the sought-after Tribeca neighborhood came with more than 2,000 square feet of terrace, a floating staircase and a private elevator.

At auction, the roughly 3,200-square-foot property sold for $5 million, less than half of what they had originally asked and little more than they paid for it two decades ago. "It was obviously a rapid mistake," Randy said of deciding to auction the home.

More clearly associated with private art or collectibles, auctions are on the rise for luxury real estate, with auction houses reporting a dramatic spike in the number of high-net-worth sellers seeking their services since 2020. And as a developer in luxury home sales, auction companies are pitching themselves on their ability to market unique properties in a range of deep-pocketed buyers beyond local markets and to sell them within a precise time frame.

Amplified by its greater media presence than real estate, or crack on a major sale that happened previously, their high-profile art sales, others who aggressively priced their luxury homes often have been forced to repeatedly cut their asking price.

Please turn to page M5

Randy and Robin Landman didn't set a minimum, based on a market price, when they auctioned their Tribeca triple penthouse with Concesso.

Room for Prayer, Without Leaving Home

Hindu owners drive demand for upscale pooja rooms with gold trim, oil lamps and custom art

By Susan Powers

IN THE DALLAS SUBURBS, Sanjeev Kulkarni lights an oil lamp in front of a wooden structure housing idols in his kitchen. The newly renovated area is dedicated to prayer and is backed by gold and white tiles matching the gilded trim and the white quartz countertop, the 41-year-old said.

Practitioners of Hinduism, particularly in India, have long created pooja rooms or areas in their homes; the word pooja, sometimes spelled puja, refers to the Sanskrit word for worship. A pooja room usually has an altar, murti or table supporting idols and pictures of Hindu gods. They are used for solitary or communal prayer, worship and meditation, and are often decorated for special ceremonies during festivals such as Navratri, said Pankaj Chhabra, a consultant in Vastu Shastra, a set of architectural-design principles based on Indian traditions.

As the population of Indian-Americans in the U.S. has grown, more interior designers, home builders and developers are specializing in accommodating the demand for pooja rooms.

Do-it-yourself pooja room decoration tutorials are popular on social media. A feature on Mindy Karasik's hit Netflix comedy "The Day After Tomorrow" about a first-generation Indian-American teenager was scenes of prayer in front of the Vishwanath family's pooja area—an ornate filled with pictures of Hindu gods.

More U.S. builders and developers are accommodating demand for pooja rooms. Brenda Sardar says she's getting more interior-design inquiries after posting her pooja-room renovation projects on Instagram.
