Comprehensive Reporting For Your Customized Campaign

After the launch, we give you complete and comprehensive reporting for the duration of your campaign. We can also give 30 day reports for you to evaluate the effectiveness of your targeting and to adjust it.

- We project the number of impressions (number of times the ad appears on each site) during your campaign.
- The number of impressions are broken down by number and site for the duration of the campaign.
- The delivery by site is broken down into delivered impressions, clicks, and click-through rate. This allows you to see on what sites your ads are performing well and where there needs to be improvement. With this information we are able to adjust the campaign for maximum effectiveness.

HIGHER ENGAGEMENT:

- Native ads are viewed 53 percent more frequently than display ads, providing a higher CTR (60 percent).
- Native ads result in an 18 percent increase in purchase intent.
- Native ads can help lift a brand by up to 82 percent.

TARGETING OPTIONS INCLUDE:

- Behavioral – thousands of targeting categories including demographics, on-line and off-line behaviors, and interests. Keywords – target a list of up to 500 keywords related to your business, and show Native ads on the web pages where they appear A.I.
- Targeting – Showing your display or video ads to people across all devices, using machine learning to target consumers based on who is engaging with the ad.
- Custom Audience Matching & Lookalike Audiences– target people on your list of emails, addresses, or phone numbers and show them native ads when they browse websites and apps.
- Cross Platform Targeting available from Mobile Conquesting.

- Native ads come in many forms, but all share the common goal of not “looking” like an ad.

Going Once, Going Twice

More wealthy homeowners are turning to the auction market, but the results don't always live up to their lofty expectations

By KENNETH CLARK and ERIC SCHWARTZ

Randy and Robin Landman had been trying to sell their Manhattan penthouse for over a year when they turned to the auction market this summer. First listed for $42.5 million, their rights in the sought-after Tribeca neighborhood came with more than 2,000 square feet of terrace, a floating staircase and a private elevator.

In auction, the roughly 3,300-square-foot property sold for $3 million, less than half of what they had originally asked and little more than they paid for it two decades ago. "It was obviously a snap minute," Randy said of deciding to auction the home.

Now closely associated with proxy art or collectible lists, auctions are on the rise for luxury real estate, with auction houses reporting a dramatic spike in the number of high-net-worth sellers seeking their services since 2020. And a slowdown in luxury home sales, auction companies are pinning. Homeowners use their ability to market properties in a range of deep-pocketed buyers beyond local markets and to the global elite.

Emboldened by the trophy home prices they see on television, or at the auction, many sellers have previously in their neighborhood or city, sellers who are motivated to sell their trophy homes often have been forced to repeatedly cut their asking prices.

Randy and Robin Landman didn't set a minimum, known as a reserve price, when they auctioned their Tribeca triplex upstairs with Concierge.
